

COACH MACK BROWN

Recognized as one of the greatest football coaches in history, Coach Brown compiled a career coaching record of 244-122-1 in 30 seasons as the head coach at The University of Texas, University of North Carolina, Tulane University, and Appalachian State University. He will be inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame later this year—his first year of eligibility. Coach Brown also is a member of the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame, Texas Sports Hall of Fame, the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame and the Longhorn Hall of Honor.

Additional accolades include the 2005 Paul W. “Bear” Bryant National Coach of the Year, the 2008 Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year, and the 2009 Big 12 Coach of the Year awards.

Coach Brown and his wife, Sally also have earned numerous honors for their significant efforts to improve the health and education of children, especially those with special needs.

COACH GENE STALLINGS

Gene Stallings played football at Texas A&M University and was hired as head coach at his alma mater when he was only 29. Stallings also served on the staff of the Dallas Cowboys, and was head coach for the St. Louis/Phoenix Cardinals and at the University of Alabama. His 1992 Alabama team completed a 13-0 season with a win in the Sugar Bowl and was named the consensus national champion.

Stallings has been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame, Alabama Sports Hall of Fame, Texas Sports Hall of Fame, Texas A&M Hall of Fame, Gator Bowl Hall of Fame and the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame.

Stallings also co-wrote A Coach's Story of Raising an Exceptional Son, which details his life as a father of John Mark, his only son and who was born with Down syndrome and a serious heart defect. Stallings and his wife, Ruth Ann, are strong supporters of and advocates for people with special needs.
